

STORMS AND FLOODS TAX LIMIT OF ENDURANCE OF BRAVE TROOPS

SOLDIERS FORCED TO REST AFTER HARDSHIPS IN WATER-
FILLED TRENCHES.

ARTILLERY KEEPS UP ITS FIRE

Great Carnage in Eastern Arena is Believed to Equal That of Western Theater.

(Associated Press)
Storms, floods, enormous loss of life and the strain of incessant fighting have apparently taxed the limit
of human endurance in the opposing forces facing each other in Belgium
and Northern France; for another
lull has come in the battle, presumably as a prelude to once more desperate effort.

PRaises GERMANS.
An official narrative given out in London today acknowledges heavy British losses, and pays unreserved
tribute to the bravery of the Germans.

CRACOW AN ENIGMA.
The situation at Cracow is an enigma. It is reported it has been invested by the Russians and that the town is afire. There is no confirmation of the report.

PRINCE TO FRONT.
The Prince of Wales has gone to the front.

AUSTRIA'S CLAIMS.
An Austrian report says that after nine days' of fighting the Austrians reached Kulmbach and forced the Servians to flight, capturing 8,000 prisoners, 42 cannon and 51
machine guns.

Artillery Keeps Up.
Today's dispatches indicate that
the assaults of the infantry and cavalry have been abandoned for the time
and that only the artillery is continuing operations.

Fighting in East.
Meanwhile the fighting continues
in other fields. The Russian invasion
of Turkish territory has been halted,
while the great campaign of the Russians against the Austro-Germans proceeds with varying fortunes in different localities. Chief interest centers on the new German offensive
movement against the Russian center. In several places the Austrian advance appears to have been continuous.

Accounts of Hardships.
Accounts of the fighting in Belgium dwell upon the frightful hardships the men in the water filled
trenches are called upon to endure,
and also upon the great loss of life.
Regarding the latter phase of the official reports there is but very little
given out.

Carnage is Awful.
If reports from the eastern arena
are to be credited the slaughter there has been no less terrible than in the west, where a British correspondent
has estimated the German casualties
during the past four days to be 160,000.

SEA MILITARY ARENA
The British government has decided to declare the whole of the North Sea to be a military arena, and all
subjects of the enemy found on neutral vessels will be liable to detention
as prisoners of war. Oil and copper have also been declared contraband
of war.

REPORTS HEAVY FIGHTING AROUND YPRES

London, Nov. 17.—The Mail's correspondent reports "heavy fighting
around Ypres Monday with large casualties." He says the allies progressed." He adds: "The German casualties are estimated at 100,000 during the past four days."

FOUGHT FOOT TO FOOT FORTY HOURS

London, Nov. 17.—"For 40 hours
we fought foot to foot" said a wounded soldier from the Ypres front. "On Sunday 3,000 Germans who attacked
our position were exterminated in an hour."

40,000 AUSTRIANS BURIED IN ONE GRAVE

Amsterdam, Nov. 17.—A letter
from a Galician priest says that 40-000 Austrians were buried in one day
in a grave six and one-half feet wide
and four miles long. These, he said,
were killed in a battle lasting less
than an hour.

IOWA OFFICIALS INSPECTING SITE

MEMBERS OF BOARD OF CON-TROL VISITED LAND OF STATE
EPILEPTIC COLONY.

J. H. McConegner of Mason City
and H. F. Liebbee of Des Moines,
members of the Iowa State Board of Control and M. N. Volding, Iowa
State Architect were here this morning and visited the site of the State
Epileptic Colony north of this city
for the purpose of getting ideas for a
like colony in their state.

The gentlemen were taken over the site by Mayor Brinton and G. G.
Mc Carthy and the plans for the local colony were explained to them. They have purchased a large site in Iowa
for the purpose of establishing a colony very similar to the one planned
to be erected on the local site.

After the had visited the land recently purchased for the colony, they were taken to the Elks' Club and entertained a short time. They took dinner at the Dixon Inn and then left
for Chicago where they will confer
with State Architect James B. Dibel-
ka regarding the plans and specifications for the colony to be located here.

COMMITTEES FOR ELKS FAIR AT WORK

COMING ANNUAL EVENT WILL BE MOST ELABORATE IN LODGE HISTORY.

All of the committees that will
have charge of the big Elks' bazaar,
which will open at Rosbrook's hall
Saturday nights of this week, have been selected and arrangements for
the fair week have nearly been completed. A large committee has been named to have charge of the various
features and a successful fair is almost assured.

The Marquette orchestra has been engaged to play on Saturday evening of this week and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week. Slothower's orchestra
will furnish the music on Monday,
Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.
Both of these orchestras are among
the leading ones in this section of the state and their work will be one of the features of the fair.

TAKES AN OFFICE IN ODD FELLOWS BLDG

ATTORNEY MARTIN J. GANNON
TAKES UP PRACTICE OF LAW
IN NATIVE CITY.

Attorney Martin J. Gannon has opened a law office in the Odd Fellows building and will enter the practice of law here instead of returning to Spokane, Washington, where he has been located for the past two years.

Mr. Gannon is a son of the late Commissioner M. J. Gannon and is a graduate of the Normal and Law
departments of the Dixon College.
He passed the bar examination both
in Illinois and in Washington and
was engaged in the actual practice
at Spokane. The many friends of Mr. Gannon will be pleased to note
that he will remain here and anticipate a promising future for him in the legal profession.

MT. MORRIS TO BOWL DIXON

A Mt. Morris bowling team will be here Thursday afternoon for a match
game with a picked Dixon team on that evening. The Mt. Morris team is reputed to consist of five cracks and
the Dixon men will have to be in form to beat them.

Miss Lucinda Zentz was declared dependent by Judge Scott in the County Court Monday. Miss Zentz
is an Amboy girl and Attorney W. H.
Winn was appointed as probator officer.

Ray Wilson is in Amboy for the day attending to business matters.

Think Operation On Babe May Not Be Necessary Now

X-Ray Photograph Taken This Morning Shows Encouraging Condition

The infant girl of Mr. and Mrs. Ed-
gad Crawford, who swallowed an open safety pin last week, may not be operated upon for the removal of the pin as was first expected would be necessary. Another X-Ray photograph was taken this morning and
the pin was found to have worked
from the stomach through the entire
small intestine and into the larger intestine. Consequently the attending physician is hopeful that an operation will not be necessary.

KENT CLAIMS ALL CITY CASES ARE HIS

SAYS OFFICIALS SHOULD NOT DISTRIBUTE THEM TO THE JUSTICES.

Should all city cases be tried before the Police Magistrate and is W.
G. Kent rightfully entitled to that office in this city? These are some of the questions which confront the city officials today. Magistrate Kent
contends that as Police Magistrate,
he should have all city cases tried
before him but some of the city authorities claim that it is discretionary
with the City Attorney before whom
such cases should be tried.

Some claim that Mr. Kent is no longer Police Magistrate but on this point, he contends that he can right-
fully hold that office until his successor has been elected and duly qualified. That has not been done
and he is still the rightful holder of
that office and title.

The storm broke Monday when a
city case was tried before Justice of Peace George W. Hill. The case was taken there upon the advice of a city
official who wanted the cases to be distributed around to each of the justices of the peace.

CUTTERS RESUME WORK AT FACTORY

SHOE FACTORY IS RAPIDLY BE-ING PUT INTO FULL OP-ERATION.

The cutting department of the Brown Shoe factory resumed operations this morning after the lay-off
during which inventory was taken
and as rapidly as work progresses to
the required points the various other
departments, which are now idle,
will resume work.

The indications are that the local
shoe factory will operate on a very satisfactory scale this winter. Since the Brown company took hold of the local plant a year ago they have been a very encouraging addition to
our city and have worked especially steady.

EXPRESS COMPANY MODIFIES ORDERS

VEAL CAN NOW BE SHIPPED
WITHIN STATE IF HEALTHY.

The local office of the American Express company received word this morning that the state veterinarian
offers no objection to the shipment of
veal between points in Illinois, provided the hoofs and heads have been removed, allowing the hide to remain
with the carcasses and providing that such shipments are accompanied by affidavit showing that the animal was
not afflicted or exposed to the contagion.

This would tend to show that the
dread foot and mouth disease is now
practically under control in this state
as several days ago the offices of the express company were ordered not to
accept veal under any circumstances,
and later that veal might be shipped
or received providing the hide was removed from the carcass and the carcass
was well wrapped.

Jesse Willard of Lighthouse was in town Saturday from Lighthouse on business.

Boy Threw Wire Over High Tension Line; Horse Killed

Ernest Miner, Living West of Rock Falls Also Badly Burned

Morrison, Nov. 17.—When Ernest Miner, a young boy residing a few miles west of Rock Falls threw a section of broom wire across the high tension cable of the Illinois Northern Utilities company, leading from Sterling to Prophetstown and this city,
he was severely burned and may not
live, while the horse he was riding
was killed instantly.

The lad was playing along the road riding on his horse and he threw the broom wire in the air.
Whether or not he intended that it
should go across the high tension
wire will probably never be known.
But the terrible voltage, following
the broom wire, short circuited the high tension cable and carried the
current into the body of the horse killing it instantly. The boy was so badly burned that his recovery is doubtful.

The light and power all along the line from Sterling to Morrison, via Prophetstown, were out for forty-
five minutes while the damage was repaired.

FORMER PINE CREEK LADY DIED IN IOWA

MRS. SARAH HOFFMAN PASSED AWAY AT CEDAR RAPIDS ON MONDAY EVENING.

Word was received here this morning of the death of Mrs. Sarah Hoffman, which occurred at the home of her daughter at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Monday evening. Death followed a stroke of paralysis which she suffered early Monday morning and after which she never regained consciousness. Her daughter was visiting with relatives in this city when she learned of her mother being stricken. She immediately left for her bedside and reached it just a short time before her death.

The deceased woman was a sister of Peter Wragg and Mrs. John Nettz of this city and William Wragg
of Pine Creek. She was born and reared in Pine Creek township and many of the older residents of that township will remember her. Peter Wragg, William Wragg, Mrs. John Nettz and Mrs. Frank Sproul left today for Cedar Rapids to be present
at the funeral.

REV. WOODS CALLED TO SO. DIXON CHURCH

FORMER PRINCIPAL OF N. DIXON
HIGH SCHOOL IS NOW A MINISTER.

Rev. Woods, who was licensed to preach at the meeting of the Northwestern Illinois Lutheran Synod in Chicago last month has been called to the South Dixon charge, consisting of the St. James and Zion church, to succeed Rev. I. B. Heisey, who has gone
east. Rev. Woods was formerly principal of the North Dixon high school
and he has many friends here who
will be pleased that he has obtained
a pastorate so soon after being licensed.

RUSS SEIZE AMERICAN FACTORIES

(Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 17.—The huge plant
of the Singer Sewing Machine company and a factory of the American Phonograph Co., located in Russia
have been seized by the government
and will be devoted to the manufacture of small arms.

TO DEDICATE SULLETTE SCHOOL

which will mark the dedication of the new parochial school at Sublette
will commence this evening with an entertainment in the hall, while the dedication proper will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Rt.
Rev. Peter Muldoon will be in charge of the dedication.

George Downing has something of interest to say on the last page.

FATE OF BYERS SISTERS NOW RESTS WITH THE TWELVE JURORS

ELKS "STAG" WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

BIG CROWD THOROUGHLY EN-JOYED ENTERTAINMENT AT CLUB MONDAY EVE.

A capacity crowd attended the big
"stag" party at the Elks' club last evening and all were repaid by having an evening of entertainment and sociability.

The gathered Elks were entertained before the gathering in the lodge
room with music from an Edison
phonograph furnished for the evening by John E. Moyer.

Irving B. Hoefler opened the program at the lodge room with a vocal solo. He sang excellently and was forced to respond to an encore. A vaudeville team from Rockford furnished a half hour's pleasing entertainment in demonstrations, new and popular. Both were artists in their work and were encored heartily.

The feature of the evening's program was the wrestling bout between Dan "Red" Wolfe of this city and Fred Mower of Rock Falls. The local man won the match in straight
falls. He took the first fall in twenty minutes with a shoulder chancery
and hammer lock hold. Mower
showed good form and writhed his
way out of a number of dangerous
positions. Wolf won the second fall
with a scissors on the body and arm
hold in fifteen minutes.

A curtain raising bout was staged
by Alfred Holm of this city and Merle Strawn of Sterling, Strawn
winning two out of three falls. The Sterling man was larger and heavier
than his opponent, but notwithstanding this, Holm pinned his shoulders
to the mat in the second fall.

Following the wrestling matches,
the antlered brigade marched to the
banquet room where very hearty refreshments were served.

HORSE WAS STOLEN BY PROFESSIONAL

LEE READ GETS OUTFIT WHICH WAS TAKEN BY JOHN
GRAVES NOV. 1.

Lee Read and Eugene Harrington
were in Chicago yesterday and drove
the horse, which was stolen from Mr.
Read's livery barn Sunday, Nov. 1, by John Graves, to DeKalb, where it was left for a day's rest before continuing
to this city with it.

It was learned in Chicago that Graves had been connected with a gang of horse thieves and came here
and secured a job working on a farm
when the police and detectives got too hot on his trail.

WOODYATT AND BURR MEET AGAIN

ANOTHER MATCH BILLIARD CON-TEST WILL BE PLAYED THIS EVE.

Chad Woodyatt will meet James Burr of Sterling in a handicap billiard match this evening at the Galt House billiard rooms in Sterling. Two games have been arranged in which Woodyatt must make 600 to 400. The same tonight will be 350 to 250
points and the other game will be played at the Opera House billiard hall in this city some time in the future.

BURY ROBERTS AT ST. PAULS

(Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 17.—In deference to the public wish the body of Lord
Roberts, will be laid to rest in St.
Paul's cathedral with elaborate military ceremonies.

Chas. Willard of Lighthouse was a guest of Elmer Berg Sunday.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS COMPLETED
THIS AFTERNOON SHORTLY
AFTER 4 O'CLOCK.

DEFENDANTS SHOW WORRY

As Trial Draws Near to Close the
Two Women Gave Evidence of Great Strain.

(By Staff Correspondent.)

Morrison, Nov. 17.—By the time
the Telegraph is in the hands of its readers in the city of Dixon the fate
of Mrs. Emma Hutton and her sister Miss Lillian Byers, who are charged
by the people of the state of Illinois
with having murdered their brother Emmanuel Byers in a hay field on their farm north of Sterling on July 9, last, will undoubtedly be in the hands of the jury.

Closing Arguments.

Judge Henry C. Ward, chief counsel for the two defendants took the whole morning in addressing the jurors in his final plea for the two women, on whom the strain is beginning to tell most noticeably as their trial nears its end. He announced,
when the noon recess was taken that he would finish his talk in half an hour after court reconvened this afternoon.

Stager to Close.

Assistant State's Attorney Walter
Stager, who for years was the prosecutor of Whiteside county, and who is a rapid fire talker, announced to
the Telegraph representative at noon
that it would not require him over
two hour to present his closing argument, and it is not believed over thirty minutes will be consumed by Judge Graves in giving his instructions.

To Jury About 4:30.

Court attaches and the attorneys
expect the case will be given to the jury at about 4:30 o'clock, while there is general confidence that the jurors will be deliberating on the
guilt or innocence of the two women
before 5 o'clock this afternoon, the twelfth day of the trial.

Ward Reviewed Case.

Judge Ward devoted a great part of his address to an analysis of the evidence to bear out the contention that the fatal shots were fired in self defense. He introduced the clothing worn by Emmanuel Byers
at the time he met his death to prove
the statements that he had presented an unsmooth appearance and he pulled the trigger of the gun several times before the jury to show them
how rapidly it could be fired, which he said tended to prove Mrs. Hutton's statement that she does not know how many shots she fired.

Attorney Erbstein.

Attorney Charles Erbstein of Chicago, assisting Judge H. C. Ward in the defense, spoke to the jury one
hour and a half yesterday afternoon,
during which time he endeavored to create in the minds of the jurors a doubt as to the guilt of the two sisters and also to set aside the sweeping assertions of States Attorney J.
J. Owens, who preceded him.

In opening his address Attorney Erbstein thanked the attaches of the court and the jurors for the courtesies shown him during the two weeks he was in Morrison and hoped that at some future date he might return to again practice in the court.

He said that he wished to thank
the jurors as men who had free
minds and who would regard their
oaths made when sworn as jurors
that they would try the case fairly
and impartially and would not make up their minds until all of the evidence and the instructions of the court would be made.

He said that in spite of all that Mr. Ludens said he had done fairly and honestly everything that he could
in the defense of his clients.

Not Habitual Criminals.

Mr. Erbstein said that the jurors
were called upon to judge these two
who were not safe blowers, robbers
or habitual criminals, but as the daughters of a farmer. He said that all afternoon they had been forced
to listen to the blasphemous statements made by the states attorney
and had borne it bravely and that they had no way to refute these statements except through their counsel.

The attorney said that instead of Bengal tigers, vampires or women

COACH SAYS MORE CANDIDATES ARE NEEDED FOR TEAM

PROF. HOMERICH SAYS SMALL SQUAD IS DEATH OF FOOTBALL HOPES.

MUST ALSO HAVE MORE WORK

Small Squad and Lack of Endurance Blamed for the Defeat at LaSalle.

(By L. A. Homerich, Coach Dixon Union High School Football Team)

The speedy well-seasoned eleven representing the LaSalle-Peru township high school administered the second defeat of the season for the local team at LaSalle Friday by a score of 48 to 7. According to the dope which was available before the game Dixon did not stand much of a chance. LaSalle had beaten Princeton 14 to 7, and Princeton had tied Freeport. Freeport had been the only team to defeat the Dixon fellows and then under unsatisfactory conditions.

Despite these facts in the first half the LaSalle team did not reveal any superior quality and in a number of respects showed inferiority. The score at the end of the first half was 13 to 7 in favor of LaSalle. Dixon had gotten their only touchdown by a forward pass to Vaughn and successive plunges through the line and off tackle by Dolahan and Ackert. Both backs did the best work in the afternoon at this time. When the coal miners acquired another touchdown in the third quarter it seemed to take the "pep" out of the Dixon crew and from that time on the final result was not in doubt.

LaSalle made their great gains by using the forward pass. Their quarterback was an accurate passer and their receivers had a knack of getting up in the open uncovered. The open field running by the quarterback was also exceptionally good. Several times he eeked his way through the Dixon defense, throwing off tackler after tackler by his change of speed as the tackler approached him.

Among the Dixon players who deserve special mention, Wold, Helek and Leslie Dolahan stand out foremost. These men were the leaders in defending Dixon's goal line and were also instrumental in opening up holes for the backfield to come through by their charging and clever blocking. Dolahan and Ackert showed some classy work at carrying the ball at times. Weiner made his downs when called upon. Vaughn and Haley completed a number of neat passes.

If any one cause could be given for the defeat it was the lack of endurance. The Dixon boys were not able to stand up under the heavy firing subjected to them by the LaSalle lads. They had not had the seasoning or the work in defense which a team should have. The fact that the coach had only about twelve or thirteen men out for positions on the team made this impossible. Dixon should have the material for two full teams and the teams should scrimmage at least three times a week. This would enable the team to try out their new plays and have some work in breaking up plays. If Dixon is ever to get a championship team such conditions must prevail.

The football season on the whole has been a success for the team. Their record of five victories, one tie and two defeats has not been equalled or surpassed by a team representing the

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

After witnessing two husky young men maul each other all over a rough canvass, twisting each other's arms and legs until one must believe the aforesaid arms and legs are on pivots, pushing and pulling each other strenuously for about half an hour, we agree most heartily with H. H. H., who remarks very fittingly:

Who wants to be a wrestler? Still, there are probably harder ways of earning one's living. Frinstance, one might get paid for tickling the heels of an ambitious mule.

The Federal Reserve banks opened yesterday and we are informed that finances are easier at once. How could they be any easier? We can imagine them being no easier (to get rid of) than they have been in the past.

However, Director Paul Warburg says yesterday shall live as a sort of financial Fourth of July—so if you have any "easier" left you might celebrate by igniting some fireworks—as William Lorimer might say.

Yes, William, about time to shed the B. V. Ds.

On the other hand, the city council having piped about Bert Smice's pipe, the commissioners MIGHT—mind we merely say MIGHT—commence to talk about a system of garbage removal and disposal. 'Twould form a great little pastime for them during the cold winter mornings when they will find it necessary to select something warm to talk about.

TRY THIS IF YOU HAVE DANDRUFF

Or Are Bothered With Falling Hair or Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

PARIS CAPITAL ON WEDNESDAY

Prince of Wales Permitted to Go to War.

REPORT KILLING OF 11,000 ENGLISHMEN

Constantinople, Nov. 17.—An official announcement says that a thousand Englishmen were killed yesterday near Fao.

Paris, Nov. 17.—The Germans were so savagely repulsed along the River Yser Sunday that an entire regiment was annihilated near Bixchoot, while near Ypres, two attacks failed signally and the Germans in retreat surrendered positions gained in previous days at terrible sacrifice. This is the official report from General Joffre, who informs the government that Monday had brought no change in the general situation. It is assumed here that the Germans are exhausted, temporarily at any rate, and need time to draw breath and fill gaps in their torn lines. There can be no doubt that their losses in the past week have been staggering. It is reported from Switzerland that the dead arriving at Brussels for cremation are almost past count.

Winter Gripping Flanders.

The grip of winter is falling on Flanders. Snow fall followed by cold rains is flooding the trenches and increasing the suffering on both sides. Influenza and pneumonia are the inevitable result of such exposure. Fields have become swamps and roads are dangerous for motor cars and cavalry. The area of inundation has spread three miles south of Dixmude.

Germans Trapped at Dixmude.

Several Belgian detachments of engineers, with a strong force of sappers, worked around to the south of Dixmude and cut another dike, which

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop" the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—kill the inflamed membranes. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant and effective cough remedy you ever used, at a cost of only 54 cents. No bother to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so gently and promptly that you wonder how it does it. Also loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in quiniol, and is famous the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

the needed the rear of the German position to an impassable depth, marring the occupants of the town and cutting them off from their main body.

Germans Lose Thousands.

The supporting columns of German infantry and machine gun detachments were driven back to the westward by the flood, and thousands of lives were lost in the withdrawal.

The field east and south of Dixmude tonight is covered with dead, hundreds of bodies of men and horses floating in the swirling waters of the flood.

The inundated region now extends from a point just south of Neuport to the forest of Houthurst, about three miles north of Bixchoote.

Reinforcements Routed.

Between Bixchoote and Dixmude several strong columns were being hurled forward en masse in an effort to force the canal again and recapture the western bank. But the torrents loosed by the opening of the dikes caught them on the front and they fled in great disorder in their anxiety to escape being wiped out.

PORCELAIN SUPPLANTS SILVER.

Silver Service Becoming Rare, Even On Tables of the Wealthy.

A distinguished Londoner who has just visited America notes the absence here of silver services on the tables, even of the wealthy, except on rare and formal occasions. Porcelain or china has become the fashion. The White House has six silver tea services, some of the exquisite flagee design and others of the massive style of Colonial times. Yet Mrs. Taft used a pretty yellow service of a famous Japanese porcelain, on which golden dragons, dwarf trees and Oriental birds fly about in a pale amber sky. Her kettle was hammered brass, also from Japan, resting on a stool of teakwood. Cups, plates, all are of the same porcelain, and the only silver articles to be seen were spoons designed after the severest Elizabethan period. A yellow silk cover is used instead of the usual linen.

Chamois leather is not the hide of the chamois, but the flesh side of sheepskins.

CUT THE CORDS that bind you to your kitchen

Come down tomorrow and see a graphic picture of conditions that apply in kitchens that lack Hoosier convenience. The whole story is in our window.

THE NEW HOOSIER CABINET

Puts your whole kitchen at fingers' ends, and cuts your work in two. We will put one in your home, to-morrow.

For a Single Dollar

We started Saturday to explain the new Hoosier Plan by which we are permitted to sell a few of these famous cabinets on surprising terms.

MOST OF THEM ARE ALREADY TAKEN

This plan differs from any other on which furniture was ever sold. Note the details:

1. One dollar puts any Hoosier you select in your home.
2. One dollar weekly dues quickly pays for it.
3. The low cash price fixed by the factory prevails absolutely.
4. The sale is under direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
5. When this allotment is taken, the sale closes.
6. If you are not delighted with your cabinet we will gladly refund your money.

When you think of the miles of steps this cabinet saves you every day, can you daily postpone looking at these cabinets until it is too late to enroll? The time is getting short. Come in tomorrow and look at these Hoosiers. You place yourself under no obligations.

You will not be asked to buy unless you realize yourself the need of this cabinet in your home. But if you do not enroll remember, some other woman will enjoy the privilege that is now yours if you enroll tomorrow.

Nothing you have ever seen will save you so much labor in your kitchen, if you act tomorrow.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING.

"Political advertising is becoming more and more of a force in politics and government. It is beginning to supplant old-fashioned mass meetings and rallies. Fewer people are eager to get out for political gatherings today than they were in past years. Men and women would rather spend the evenings elsewhere and then go home and read about whom to vote for in the papers," says the Bureau County Republican.

"In the present campaign newspapers have been used more than ever before to reach the voters. The Republican has published several thousand inches of advertising of this nature during the past several weeks. Other papers have also filled their columns with photographs and claims of candidates. Raymond Robins has carried on a state-wide advertising campaign in most of the newspapers prominent in Illinois. Senator Sherman has been forced to do likewise, while Roger Sullivan employed several expert advertising agents to handle his publicity in addition to his regular aides.

"Mr. Douglas, the famous shoe manufacturer of Brockton, Mass., was ten years ago actually the first candidate who by extensive advertising in nearly all dailies of his state, captured the governorship of Massachusetts. The state was republican at that time, but Candidate Douglas, from his wide experience as an advertiser, knew that he could reach more people by advertising than by personal addresses. He used full pages to set forth his claims to the office and his policies won out. Since then political advertising has become more and more popular and fashionable, for politicians have become aware of the fact that in mass meetings, which are usually attended only by followers of their own political creed and ignored and shunned by those of the opponent's creed, they can convince only those who anyhow agree with them, while by the use of advertising space they can address all constituents of a community.

"The time at which Mr. Douglas started his political campaign by advertising, party lines had begun to break up and independent political thinking to assert itself. The people were ready to hear both sides of an issue.

"This political advertising has grown greatly in the last decade and represents the best and most effective method of canvassing. It strikes the very people who are open to arguments and conviction.

"It covers the entire constituency. Voters have learned to listen to what a candidate has to say, when they see his advertisement in print. The printed word is not a passing sound. The voter has time to think over what he read and to weigh arguments. A printed address reaches audiences of ten and twenty thousand and more, while the spoken word reaches only those who happen to be brought into the limited space of a hall. In the advertising pages the candidate can present his case in a lucid and well thought out way and the voters can read and re-read it.

"The winning candidates have of late been mostly those who used newspaper advertising. For this reason this method of canvassing has become the greatest force in political persuasion. And for these reasons we notice at every election more and more candidates addressing the voters by liberal use of paid advertising."

CONCERNING THE BOAT HOUSES.

The editorial published in the Telegraph last evening concerning the moving of the boat houses from the north shore of Rock river at Dixon has created considerable interest in the matter and two of the city commissioners got into communication with the Telegraph soon after the paper was issued (Mayor Brinton and Commissioner Schmidt), and they agreed exactly with the sentiments expressed in the editorial and said the matter was in the hands of the city park board. Mayor Brinton stated last evening that he believed it would be a good thing for the city to build a big boat house on the north shore and rent apartments for boats. He believed the building could be made very attractive. He agreed that the boat owners should be encouraged in their interest in Dixon's greatest summer sport, instead of being driven out.

Commissioner Schmidt, in his interview with the Telegraph, stated that he agreed heartily with the ideas expressed in the paper and that he was in favor of furnishing enough city money to the park board to build an attractive boat house on the north shore, large enough to accommodate all the boats there—one that would not obstruct the view of the river. He said that no more boat houses should be built there until a satisfactory plan is agreed upon.

The Telegraph interviewed Chairman E. N. Howell, of the park board, this morning and Mr. Howell agreed that it is the wish of the park board to do everything it can to encourage boating and use of the river, and it was not the intention of the board to drive boaters away. The park board is simply engaged in a commendable campaign for the improvement of park property in the city, of which the north river bank is a part.

Mr. Howell is a water-sport enthusiast and he agrees that what is needed on the north side is a large boat house for the accommodation of all the boaters. In fact he has for several years been an advocate of such a plan.

The park board is in hopes that the boat owners themselves will get together and build such a boat house as will be in keeping with their needs and still improve the river bank, rather than make it unsightly. The board is determined to rid the shore of the many unsightly shacks that now adorn it, some of which are not even used for boat houses at all. The board has not fully decided to enforce the city council's recommendation that the boat owners be ordered off that side of the river by April 1st, next year, but they are convinced that some firm measures must be taken to bring the matter to a focus and induce a change in conditions there.

The Telegraph hopes that the agitation will result in either a municipal boat house or one erected by the joint efforts of the boatmen. As we said last evening, it is surely necessary that the north shore must be cleaned up, but it is equally sure that the boating on the river must not be discouraged, nor made less attractive.

The move that is on foot to establish a colony of Belgian lace-makers in this country is a commendable one. It would relieve a stricken people and would lower the prices for such materials in this country.

DISGRUNTLED.

"These floors I have to sweep and swab," the janitor exclaimed; "It is indeed a beastly job, of which I am ashamed. I was designed for better things and higher, heaven knows; I should be fiddling with the strings of lyres and things like those. I cannot do such work with zest, it's not my proper sphere; I'm sick of it, and I'll be blest if I shall tarry here." Then came the boss, who seemed to be depressed and sad and tired, and to the janitor said he, "Go, chase yourself! You're fired! You queer me with your dismal face, your feet are always cold; a dozen fellows want the place that you so lightly hold." The janitor has time to burn, commencing with his soul; and how he envies those who light the fires at dawn. In vain he rustles for a job—and winter's coming on. Though we must do some work we hate, let's wield a willing hand, for he's the wisest sort of skate who keeps his grouches canned. We may desire a higher sphere, but, till our chance arrives, let's do our work without a tear, for thus the toiler thrives.

RESTS WITH JURORS

that the jurors had before them the fate of two farmer's daughters, girls who were born and reared on the farm in the community from which the jurors came.

Murder Awful Thing.

Murder, declared Mr. Erbstein, is an awful thing, and he charged that the states attorney who was young and inexperienced, had sought to inflame the minds and passions of the jurors by his attack on the two defendants by picturing them as human monsters.

Why Witnesses?

Why did Emma Hutton and Lillian Byers go into the hay field where they knew there were two witnesses if they were murderers and had planned to kill their brother? Why did they not wait until they caught him in the barn, or why did they not kill him earlier in the day when he was alone with them in the house where there would have been no witnesses to the deed?

Mr. Erbstein also called attention to the fact that the state had shut out all of the testimony regarding the character of the deceased by limiting the defense to a ten year period of his life time thereby eliminating many stories that would have been detrimental to the state's case.

Feared Their Brother.

He called attention to the dread and fear that the sisters had for their brother for years and how Lillian, fearing an attack, had been forced to stand in the road and call Lillian Gray on the Sunday that it was testified the little girl was in the yard at the home of her uncle because she feared if she entered the yard she would be subjected to an attack from the brother whom she feared.

Had Shown No Motive.

He said that the state had not shown a motive for the killing and said that there were but two which could have been shown, the first insanity, the second a desire to get possession of the father's farm. In the first instance he said that this defense was not set up, while in the second instance the motive would have been foolish because it would have been necessary to divide the nine-acre farm between seven children in case the father left no will.

Mr. Erbstein said that if the sisters went to the field to kill their brother that the offense was murder and that the jurors should not compromise with themselves in this event by giving the sisters a sentence to prison, but should hang them.

State's "Cherubs."

Mr. Erbstein cleverly called attention to the fact that many of the witnesses had been called tigers by saying that he was surprised that the cherubs which the state had introduced had not flown from the witness stand through the windows when they completed their testimony.

The attorney said that both sisters were entitled to prove self-defense and that Lillian, if she had so desired, could have come in and sworn that she shot her brother after the shooting by Emma because she feared that he might also attack her. That Lillian did not do so, he said, was evidence that both sisters were telling the truth.

Charges State With Trick.

In referring to the presence of Mrs. Byers and her children in the court room Mr. Erbstein accused the state of having performed a deliberate trick in bringing them from Sterling into the court room to influence the minds of the jury.

He held that there was nothing in the evidence to show that either of the defendants was wrong morally or that they were depraved. He said that both Lillian and Emma had the utmost solicitude for their father and mother and that this solicitude was shown by the many visits paid by both of them to the parents' home during the years they left.

The attorney said that if the witnesses on both sides were to be believed, Emanuel Byers must have lead a regular Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde existence. While away from home he was a man of peace and quietude and

APPLES.

An apple is a round juicy delicacy provided by nature for the mitigation of cold winter evenings.

Apples were originally made to eat. Unfortunately man with his infernal genius for improving upon nature, has changed all this. Now they are made to sell.

In the good old days the common citizen bought three barrels of apples in the fall and stored them in the cellar. After supper he lit a candle and going to the cellar he picked out half a peck of russets, Brother Jonathans and Baldwins which he ate with skill and elation during the evening, depositing the cores in the wrong place with unerring accuracy.

We do not do this any more. We are an extravagant nation, but we do not go this far in our orgy of expense. Nowadays when an American feels like absorbing an apple he stops at a fruit stand and buys for five cents a highly polished masterpiece which looks like perfect joy and tastes like cotton batting.

The old saying, "An apple a day keeps the doctor away," has been changed to read, "An apple a day turns your creditors gray."

Apples are no longer grown in the orchard behind the house. They are grown two thousand miles away on land which has been judiciously unloaded for $1,500 an acre by the former owner. These apples are numbered, catalogued and ripened under fly netting and when they are finally picked, wrapped in white chemises and slipped into the innocent city districts they are a financial obligation instead of a light lunch. Russell Sage was once derided for dining upon an apple but nowadays the man who buys an apple every time he passes a fruit stand is investigated by his bank and told that he must either sell his automobile or quit plunging on apples.

We are a methodical and ingenious nation, passionately fond of improvements but in this case it almost seems as if we had improved the apple out of existence. Apple eating is a lost art and the man who can take a perfect greenling from the grocer's barrel and undress it by removing a curl peel, five feet long, is not among us.

The people of this country should arise and demand more apples and less perfection.

SLAYS WIFE AND SON,
THEN ENDS OWN LIFE

Thompsonville, Ill., Killer Crazy—ed by Family Deaths.

Thompsonville, Ill., Nov. 17.—Thurman Smith, his wife and two year old son were found shot to death in their home here at 11 o'clock in the morning. Smith's throat had also been cut with a razor.

Smith, who has been suffering from dependency since the death of his father and sister last spring, is supposed to have first shot his wife with a single barreled shot gun, and then killed the child. The body of the woman was found on the rear porch with a gun shot wound in her side. Near by lay the child, who had been shot in the face. Smith was found lying on the floor in the house.

That Smith had planned the killing is indicated by the fact that he sent his mother to the home of Mrs. Dorris a neighbor, early that morning. Smith has been greatly depressed since the death of his father, John Smith, and his sister. He held himself responsible for bringing measles to his father's home from which disease his father and sister died. Smith was twenty-five years old and his wife twenty-two.

BRITAIN IS GIVEN HUGE WAR FUND

House of Commons Votes $1,125,000,000 More Credit.

JOHN BULL FINANCES THEM ALL

Measures Also Adopted for 1,000,000 More Men—Will Increase Public Debt 50 Per Cent—Furnishes Money to Her Colonies and Allies—Reports British Boats Disabled.

London, Nov. 17.—The house of commons by a unanimous vote, sanctioned the new vote of credit of $1,125,000,000 and the new army of 1,000,000 men requested by Premier Asquith.

The supplementary estimate which was submitted by the war office stated that a million more soldiers would bring England's total of all ranks to 2,186,400 men.

Biggest Demand Ever Made on Britain This, the greatest single demand ever made upon the material resources of Great Britain, in addition to the millions already voted in August, is equivalent to an increase of more than 50 per cent in the national debt.

The premier told the house that the largest portion of the first £100,000,000 already had been expended in the conduct of military operations, loans to the allies and disbursements for food supplies for the country.

Costs $5,000,000 a Day.

The war, he declared, has cost $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 a day thus far. The expenditure for sugar, which had been especially large, would, in the belief of the premier, ultimately be recouped to the exchequer. A considerable sum had been spent to secure the control of the railroads to the government, and the expenditure included provisions for refugees.

For Real War Purposes.

With regard to the purposes of the new credit, the far greater bulk of this would be for army and navy expenditures, the premier said. The civil expenditures were inconsiderable, and they would be largely for the purpose of getting food supplies and for further commodities necessary for the British, the use of which must be made impossible for the enemy.

Another large item was made up of loans of money to others, amounting to $215,000,000. The principal items in this list were to the Belgian government, $50,000,000, and to Serbia $4,000,000, on which no interest was to be charged until the end of the war.

Helping Her Colonies.

Other loans to the self governing dominions of Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, countries which under ordinary circumstances would be compelled to borrow in the London market, would account for $171,250,000 of the new credit for the reason that the government has undertaken the responsibility of raising loans for these dominions.

Reports British Boats Disabled.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—(By wireless)—According to information given officially to the press by the German war office, reports reaching Berlin from Geneva set forth that the British torpedo boat destroyer Falcon, the cruiser Brilliant and the sloop of war Kinaldo have been disabled by German guns on the Belgian coast.

THE MEAN OLD THING.

The honeymoon was over and the husband, returning from business was grieved to find his little wife crying bitterly.

"Oh, George," she sobbed, "such a dreadful thing has happened. I had made you a beautiful pie all myself, and Fido went and ate it."

"Well, never mind, my dear," he said cheerfully, "we can easily buy another dog."

'T WAS EVER THUS.

There are but few editors in our state who have not made a vigorous and continuous fight against the city mail order house. This has been done in the interest of the home merchant and without money and without price. If the editors of the land had received regular advertising rates for all they have said against these enemies of the country merchant, they could now be wearing diamonds. Now, the department store man appreciates advertising space and is willing to take all the average country editor has for sale and that at a good price. What other would refuse business to help their class of business or professional men friends, especially as many of the said friends never seem in the least disposed to return the compliment or even appreciate it.—Lanark Gazette.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE.

The sixteenth part of the Peris of Pauline, in two reels, will be given at the Family this evening. But four more parts remain to complete the story and tonight's episode should not be missed as it contains a very interesting part of the story. The celebrated Hearst-Selig news pictorial will show pictures tonight of the opening of the Panama canal and the steamer Ancon sailing from Colon to Panama with the Zone officials, and Queen Elizabeth nursing wounded and views of the Belgian battlefield; also Carranza with rebel army marching into Mexico City. For the comedy part of the program Broncho Billy's Wild Ride will be shown.

DIXON OPERA HOUSE.

There are six exphatic song hits in the successful Mort H. Slinger musical comedy, "A Modern Eve," which will be the attraction at the Opera house on Sunday night, Nov. 22. Goodbye Everybody, the alluring waltz song, is easily the song sensation of the year, and Is the Girl You Married Still the Girl You Love? You're Such a Lonesome Moon Tonight! Every Day is Christmas When You're Married; Rita, My Margarita, and Won't You Smile, follow closely in its wake in the popular fancy. A Modern Eve, which ran for two hundred and fifty performances in Chicago, was staged by Frank Smithson, the director whose ingenuity for striking effects and skill in adroit chorus ensembles is very well demonstrated in this production.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess theater will show another program of excellent praise with a splendid two reel feature as a headliner, "The Wrong Prescription" a Reliance drama with Jack Conway and Irene Hunt in the leading roles. This is a love story of a doctor and a nurse and it is one of those beautiful stories taken from real life which we see every day, the scenes and costumes harmonize with the story and the acting of this drama is full of realism. The other pictures are "Those Love Pangs" a Keystone comedy with their laughable plights and predicaments and full of real comedy. The other picture is a Thanhouser drama entitled "Left in the Train," an appealing drama of forgiveness in which a girl defies her parents and elopes but afterwards sees her mistake and repents.

ILLINOIS THEATRE.

The last two weeks of Klaw & Erlanger's mighty musical comedy "The Little Cafe," are announced at the Illinois theater, Chicago, where that brilliant musical comedy from the opening performance a fortnight since has nightly been welcomed by capacity audiences and the constant echo of their vociferous applause and laughter.

Not for years has such spectacular success been accorded a similar production in the city as that attained by "The Little Cafe," which is really the "last word" in musical comedy, and in its witty book and lyrics, its refreshingly delightful music and brilliant surroundings has set a pace that leaves far behind its predecessors.

The original company of over one hundred people which characterized its run of over one year in New York will be seen intact. Alma Francis, Harold Vizard, Tom Graves, Harry Depp, Gabrielle Grey, Colin Campbell and a host of others are all a very happy combination that wed laughter, melody and terpsichore into a stunning trinity.

The chorus of the organization is remarkable for the fact that it sings, dances and acts, and at the same time is one of the prettiest seen for many seasons.

Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday. Curtain at 8 and 2.

AMERICAN MUSIC HALL.

Helen Ware and "The Revolt" have made a bit of the biggest patrons at the American Music Hall and are evidently destined to remain there for some time to come. Miss Ware has long been popular with the theatregoers and her new theme gives her ample opportunity to broaden her hold on her many admirers and to gain new ones at the same time. In her present drama she has a role enabling her emotional genius, for it is nothing short of genius to shine to the best advantage. From start to finish of "The Revolt" she has her audience in a grip, moving it to tears, holding it vice-like in scenes of quiet intensity and thrilling it with her flowing outbursts of passion. The wretched woman, whom she portrays, the victim of a husband's indifference and worse, is not a rare figure today. Unfortunately she exists in great numbers, and every man and woman who sees "The Revolt" know of homes the exact counterpart of the home in the play, where the husband rarely appears until the small hours, and where the wife eats out her heart in waiting for him night after night and longing for the love which he has transferred to someone else. It is an appealing and powerful story, and it has made its way to the public heart, owing mainly to Miss Ware's superb characterization of the leading role. The actress is surrounded by one of the strongest supporting combinations ever seen in Chicago.

GARRICK THEATER CHICAGO.

"Peg O' My Heart" continues to be the biggest hit in Chicago.

The deference to popular taste so often mentioned as a reason for presenting plays which startle by boldness of theme instead of appealing by force of idea, or grace of expression, does not seem to be entirely appreciated by that same public for whose sake so much sacrifice of managerial modest is made. There have been numerous experiments with triangular plots, in the fall production in Chicago, but Oliver Morosco's comedy success: "Peg O' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' play continues on its fifth month at the Garrick theater, with a popularity that is smashing all previous Garrick attendance records.

Oliver Morosco, the California producer, is indeed to be commended for his selection of this simple and most straightforward of dramas with its sweet, old-fashioned love story, its English novelists like to draw. The refreshing role of Peg, is cleverly played in Chicago by Miss Peggy O'Neill.

CHAPTER LI.

The New Judith.

From sleep as from drugged stupor Judith Trine awakened, struggling back to consciousness like some exhausted diver from the black depths to the star-stricken surface of a night-bound pool.

And for a little she lay unstruggling, her half-numb wits fumbling with their business of renewing acquaintance with the world.

At first she could by no means recognize her surroundings. This rude chamber of rough plank walls and primitive furnishings; this wide, hard couch she shared with her still slumbering sister, Rose; the view revealed by an open window at the bedside; a fair perspective of tree-clad mountains through which a wide-bosomed canyon rolled down to an emerald plain, conveyed nothing to her intelligence.

A formless sense of some epochal change in the habits and mental processes of a young lifetime, added to her confusion.

Who was she herself, this strange creature who rested here so calmly by the side of Rose? If she were Judith Trine, how came she to be there? Irreconcilable opposites in every phase of character, the sisters had sedulously avoided association with each other ever since childhood; they had not shared the shelter of four walls overnight since time beyond the bounds of Judith's memory. What, then, had so changed them both that they should be found in such close company?

What, indeed, had become of the wild thing, Judith Trine of yesterday? Surely she had little enough in common with this Judith of today, in whose heart was no more room for envy, hatred, malice or any uncharitable, selfishness, so full was it of love which, though it was focused upon the person of one man, none the less embraced all the world—even her sister and successful rival in that one man's affections.

This change had not come upon her without warning. She had been almost insensibly aware of its advent through the gradual softening of that old Judith's hard and vengeful nature in the course of the last few days. But now that the revolution was accomplished, she hardly knew herself—she hardly knew the world, indeed, so differently did she regard it—not without something of the wide-eyed wonderment of a child to find all things so new and strange and beautiful.

And this was the work of Love! Now the chain of memories was quite complete, no link lacking in its continuity. She recalled clearly every incident that had marked the slow growth of this great love she had for Alan Law, from that first day, not yet a month old, when he had escaped the fiery deathtrap she had set for him and repaid her only by risking his life anew to save her from destruction, down to this very morning when the stream from a hydraulic nozzle had swept over the brink of a three hundred-foot precipice a crimson racing automobile containing two desperate men bent upon compassing the death of her beloved.

By that act of sheer self-defense the world was richer for the loss of two black-hearted blackguards, and Alan Law might now be considered safe from further persecution—since there now remained not one soul loyal enough to Seneca Trine to prosecute his private war of vengeance against Alan. And though that aged monomaniac had means whereby he might purchase other accomplices and corrupt them to his hideous purposes, Judith was determined that he should never again have any opportunity so to do. Though Alan, she knew, would never lift his hand to hinder her father's freedom of action, she, Judith, meant to take such steps as his persecution called for. If there were any justice in the land—if there were any allies capable of discriminating between Trine's apparent sanity and his deep-rooted mania—then surely not many days more should pass into history without witnessing his confinement to an institution for the criminal insane.

She, Judith, would see to that, and then . . . The woman sighed once more. Then Rose and Alan would marry and live happily ever after. But what of Judith?

She made a small gesture of resignation to her destiny. What became of her no longer mattered, so that Alan were made happy in such happiness as he coveted.

And now the thought stirred her sharply that what was to be done must be done quickly, if at all. And the almost level rays of the declining sun, striking in through the open window, counseled haste if Judith were to accomplish her intention of leaving this place and finding her father again before nightfall.

With the utmost care she rose from the bed, crept to the door of the room (now recognized as the quarters of the foreman of the hydraulic mining outfit) and out into the room adjoining.

And there, pulling the door to gently behind her, she paused and for many minutes stood in tense contemplation of the man she loved—Alan Law, asleep in a chair beside a table, his head pillowed on his folded arms.

This was leaving-taking between them and he would never know.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Don't Hesitate!

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Back-ache or Bladder trouble—Neutralize acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

When the kidneys clog you must help them shut off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly.

At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Let less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

This famous agent is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all hand-draft goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

How many hospital patients, suffering from the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin diseases, have been relieved by the use of Black Silk Stove Polish?

That child in the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (nurses of eczema and irritations on eczema), writes recommending a patient. The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and lips have resumed their natural expression.

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatments and still using cream and ointments with the same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. H. BELL writes: "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. is prescribed. The skin is moistened—so thoroughly retracted—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

HEARD IN DIXON

HOW BAD BACKS HAVE BEEN MADE STRONG—KIDNEY PILLS
 CORRECTED.

All over Dixon you hear it. Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Dixon people are telling about it—telling of backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople. They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches, if you feel lame, sore and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty or off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Dixon citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

Mrs. J. Helfrich, R. F. D. No. 4, Dixon, says: "While I have never taken Doan's Kidney Pills myself I can strongly recommend them and I am glad to confirm the public statement one of my family gave in their praise some years ago. For a long time he suffered from irregular action of his kidneys. He also had a backache and found relief only when he used Doan's Kidney Pills, that he got at Leake Bros.' Drug store. They stopped the pain and restored his kidneys to a normal condition."

Mrs. Helfrich is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Helfrich recommends—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores.
